A place in history, chapters from time

LINDSAY Collier promises to give Walthamstow its industrial due in a book he has been commissioned to write.

The London cabbie is the volunteer director of Walthamstow Pump House Museum and is relishing his new venture.

"There is so much to tell about Walthamstow, people just do not realise how important its place is the country's industrial history," he said.

"The first British flight in a British built plane with a British pilot happened here in 1909.

"The first internal combustion engine was made here, as was the first double decker bus," added the man who opened the technical museum 19 years ago – and is still adding to it.

He has lived in Walthamstow for 40 years and spent hundreds of hours researching the area's history in libraries and on the internet.

"I expect it will take a year to put the book together – I have a good collection of pictures to illustrate it.

"I have one of famous aviator Amy Johnson at Walthamstow dog track, with Bill Morrison, whom she married. She attended the track's opening night in 1933," he said.

"I have all sorts of interesting items to include in the book" Lindsay added, "I am so pleased I have been asked to write. Gives me a chance to look at the past and the present, to comment on what's gone and what's still here."

"I hope to bring the stories think are important that other people have missed out."

Amberley Publishing, which specialises in local history will bring the book out.

Police hunt for two men after late night sex attack on youngster

GIRL, 12, IN RAPE ORDEAL

By Pat Higgins

waltham@yellowad.co.uk

TWO men are being hunted by police after a 12-year-old girl was raped in Walthamstow at the weekend.

Detectives appealed for more information on the attackers, aged between 17 and 19, who lured their young victim to disused garages at the end of Hibbert Road near the junction with Theydon Street Walthamstow in the early hours of Saturday morning.

The child was pinned down and raped by the duo between 12.15am and 12.30am. She managed to call out to friend who came to find her, and the suspects ran off.

Detective Inspector Simon Ellershaw, leading the investigation, said: "This was a very nasty attack on a vulnerable girl, just 12 years old, by a group of older men, who engaged her in conversation before leading her to a secluded area.

"She was pinned down and two of the men then brutally raped her."

He appealed for anyone with information or any witnesses to contact police as soon as possible.

The first man was about 17, and was of mixed race but dark-skinned with big brown eyes and wearing a black puffa-style jacket with a hood, black chinos, black trainers – possibly FILA. He had a diamond stud in his left ear and a London accent, and said his name was Mo.

The second was black with big lips and very tall. His hair was partly shaven and he was wearing black trousers and a red and blue shirt.

A third man, who did not take part in the rape, was black and had a moustache, he was wearing a blue/black coloured hoodie and blue and red cap. He said his name was Miles.

Anyone with information is asked to call the Sexual Offences, Exploitation and Child Abuse Command on 020 8217 7408 or Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

£1m Boris homes cash

ALMOST £1million has been earmarked to build homes for elderly and disabled people.

In Barking and Dagenham, £105,000 will be used to build three supported homes in Margaret Bondfield Avenue and £805,500 is set aside for 23 in Stansgate Road.

The cash comes from £30m Mayor of London Boris Johnson secured to build hundreds of special homes for older and disabled residents.

A council spokesman said: "We are delighted our bid for funds to build council bungalows for older and disabled people on these two sites was successful. These bungalows will be council properties and the residents will be council tenants."

"They are on top of the 38 council bungalows currently being built for older people at Alex Guy Gardens, formerly Wood Lane Sports Centre, and Luke Allsopp Square, formerly Lawns Residential Home. We are building more than 1,000 new homes, either for social or affordable rent, across Barking and Dagenham, at the moment."

Supported housing complexes, which help elderly and disabled people to live independently and be part of their community with supervision nearby, were invited to apply for a grant from the mayor's Care and Supported Housing Care Fund from October last year. The funding is the first phase of the mayor's Care and Supported Housing Fund, will build 669 purpose-built affordable homes on 35 sites across the capital.

The fund, which will help around 1,500 older and disabled Londoners and is a key part of the mayor's Housing Covenant to improve housing options and boost jobs and growth in the capital's construction industry.

The mayor said: "It is essential we provide more purpose-built, quality homes for older and disabled Londoners."

"They will help people in Barking and Dagenham stay in their own communities."

"Developments like this will give older and disabled Londoners a chance to downsize to property better suited to their needs."

"In turn, this will improve the wider housing market by freeing up larger properties, helping to tackle overcrowding and provide more homes for working Londoners."

DELIGHTED: Soldier mark Allen with his replaced gifts with Avril Mills and Vicki Michelle

Charity helps hero

HEROIC soldier Mark Allen is delighted with a new laptop, TV and games console which a charity has given to him - to replace those stolen from his car.

The 22-year-old, who lost both his legs while serving in Afghanistan - was devastated when a sneak broke into his car and stole the items, while he was in London for rehab treatment.

Hainault based charity Dream Factory heard about the theft and decided to replace the items he had lost.

Last Friday Avril Mills who founded the charity and Allo Allo actress Vicki Michelle - its patron - met Mark at a Chigwell restaurant to hand over the replaced items.

Vicki had heard about the theft and turned to the charity for help.

Mark, who lives in Kings Lynn, said: I am absolutely delighted with the laptop, TV and games console. It's amazing. I am so grateful to everyone who has helped."

Vicki said: "It was fantastic to be able to help and replace some of the items that were stolen.

Avril said: "Mark is an inspiration to everyone. He has managed to rebuild his life despite what he has been through, with the help of his girlfriend Hayley, and he still has a smile on his face."

Mark was serving with 1 Royal Anglian Regiment in Afghanistan in 2010 when he was badly injured by an improvised explosive device (IED).

He lost both legs above the knee and has undergone extensive treatment including skin grafts since.

He was hard hit by the theft, especially as his laptop contained irreplaceable photos.

He said: "If the person who stole it sees this - or anyone has recently acquired a Sony laptop - can we have the hard drive back?"

All things bright and beautiful new styles - new shades - new choices

WINNERS: Members of YIAP

Skillful youngsters scoop top awards

YOUNGSTERS who know how to defuse a situation and avoid violence scooped two awards for their skills.

Waltham Forest's Youth Independent Advisory Group (YIAP), who work with police and council to ensure the voice of the young is heard, won a prize for being the most supportive organisation for training and mentoring young people in the borough's youth offending service, local schools and pupil referral units (PRUs).

One YIAP member, Ric'kisha Dalson, took home the award for 'young person making an impact in their community,' for her work as a young adviser, and setting up her own social enterprise - The Gifted Circle Movement - which promotes positive activities for young people.

The awards were from Leap, a long-established social enterprise which aims to prevent conflict, violence and destructive behaviour.

Liaquat Ali, council cabinet member for community safety and cohesion said: "It was a truly inspirational evening and I'm incredibly proud of the YIAP and Ric'kisha."

For more information about how young people can get involved in their local community phone 020 8496 3000 or visit www.walthamforest.gov.uk and search for 'YIAP'.

Festival to welcome poet

POET Laureate Carol Ann Duffy is to be a guest at the borough's literary festival.

She is the author of a number of award-winning poetry collections, plays, fairy tales and poems for children.

She is the first woman to receive this top recognition and has also been made an OBE and CBE for services to poetry.

She will appear at Walthamstow library during the festival, Words over Waltham Forest.

Councillor Ahsan Khan, the borough's cabinet member for health and well-being, said: "Hosting the Poet Laureate is a real coup for us."

The festival is a collaboration between Artillery, the independent arts organisation behind the E17 Art rail, the council, Waltham Forest Arts in Education Network, LDX (formerly Mencap) and Apex Arts.

It runs across the borough from October 26 to November 17.

Massive jobs boost at port

IT'S OFFICIAL. The opening of Essex's London Gateway port will create 27,700 jobs.

The announcement came as DP World Vice Chairman Jamal Majid Bin Thaniyah flew into London to inspect the port before it opens for business later this year.

He said: "London Gateway is a unique development for the UK, bringing DP World's values of delivering excellent supply chain solutions for our global customers.

"With some 3,500 construction workers employed every day and thousands of long term jobs to be created, this is a huge inward investment by DP World into the UK."

According to government studies, Britain's newest deep sea container port is expected to contribute an incredible £2.4bn to the local economy each year. Mr Jamal Majid Bin Thaniyah's visit comes just weeks after the announcement that Marks & Spencer will build a 900,000 square foot distribution centre on the site.

London Gateway's logistics park will be Europe's largest and will see deep-sea cargo sent directly to the market from distribution centres at London Gateway, removing the time and cost associated with movement of goods via inland distribution centres.

London Gateway CEO, Simon Moore said: "As an island nation, we have a tradition of trading with global partners and London Gateway will ensure that this tradition continues.

"Whilst we are the UK's new global hub port, by virtue of our location near London, this port will bring fantastic benefits to the region. We are creating work, reducing the number of lorries on our roads and saving businesses up to £200 for every container moving to or from the London and surrounding market. If you have a business that imports or exports, London Gateway makes sense on every level."

The job's announcement coincided with a visit by London Mayor Boris Johnson.

He said: "London is set to regain its position as one of the world's greatest ports, and establish itself once again as a gateway to world trade. This gargantuan site will create tens of thousands of jobs in our capital and the South East, whilst helping to drive continued prosperity for the rest of the UK."

Ford backs teen plan

► speedread

YOUNG students with an eye on a career in engineering will be able to enrol in a new university technical college (UTC) next year.

Ford Motor Company is supporting this new venture for 14 to 19-year-olds, earmarked for the Dagenham-based Centre for Engineering and Manufacturing Excellence (CEME).

The new college, known as Elutec, will open to students from east London and Essex in September 2014.

Ford engineers will also assist with the development of two curriculum modules involving practical and theoretical study, reinforced by tours for students at the nearby Ford Dagenham Diesel Centre and the Ford Dunton Technical Centre in Essex. This will provide them with an insight into real-world and high-tech manufacturing and design.

port the principle of the university technical college.

"Achieving robust qualifications while also concentrating on engineering and technical disciplines will inspire the next generation to be part of excellence in engineering."

UTCs are a new type of college supported by the Department of Education to provide stronger educational focus on 'real world' practical-based learning.

A showcase event took place at CEME last month, to tell prospective students and their parents about Elutec and give them a chance to meet the college's newly appointed principal, Ruth Umerah.

The college is sponsored by University College London (UCL). For more information about Elutec and the courses that are on offer, just visit: <http://www.elutec.co.uk>

Getting together

OLDER people in Barking and Dagenham will be able to enjoy 'Get Togethers' thanks to a £60,000 grant from a City of London Corporation's charity.

City Bridge Trust has given the cash to the Volunteer Bureau of Barking and Dagenham (VBB) which set up its first 'Get Together' group in January 2012 after the local Age Concern group closed. They expect to open 20 more over three years.

Joan Brandon, VBB chief executive said: "City Bridge Trust support means many more older residents, who are isolated, will be able to go to a Get Together group."

£1.1m revamp

BARKING and Dagenham College is getting £1.1million to revamp its campus.

The College applied for funding through the new College Capital Investment Fund (CCIF) scheme, set up to support colleges across the UK in their efforts to ensure learners reach their potential.

Skills Minister Matthew Hancock said: "This money will be added to the £2.3 million which the college is already investing, to help transform the campus and improve teaching and learning locally."

Right on time

TRAIN operator c2c has kept its position at the top of the latest punctuality league table,

In a month in which the weather presented challenges to train operators across the country, 96.6% of c2c trains arrived on time in the four weeks to July 20 – the best performance in the UK, says the company. Over the past year 97.3% of c2c trains arrived on time – again the best in the country, says c2c.

The figures published by Network Rail are the Public Performance Measure, the rail industry's official statistics.

Mazda has the ability

ESSEX Mazda is giving Motability-eligible drivers an extra bonus this summer.

They are adding the all-new Mazda6 Saloon, the Mazda CX-5 compact SUV and the automatic version of its iconic MX-5 sports car to the line-up of new vehicles available through the Motability campaign.

Full benefits of the Mazda Motability scheme include three years insurance, servicing, maintenance and road fund licence, plus full RAC breakdown assistance.

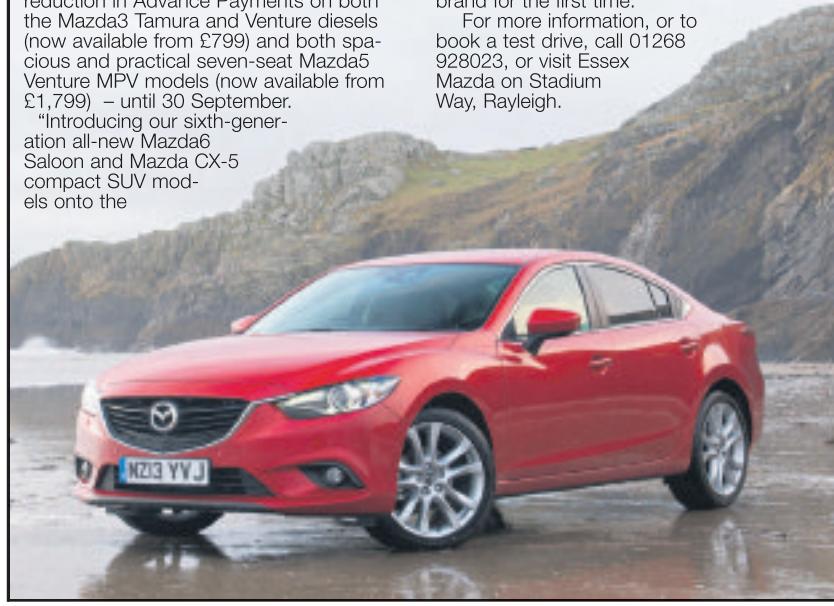

The Rayleigh-based dealer is continuing its extremely competitive offers across the Motability range. These include compelling NIL Advance Payment offers as well as a reduction in Advance Payments on both the Mazda3 Tamura and Venture diesels (now available from £799) and both spacious and practical seven-seat Mazda5 Venture MPV models (now available from £1,799) – until 30 September.

"Introducing our sixth-generation all-new Mazda6 Saloon and Mazda CX-5 compact SUV models onto the Motability scheme creates Mazda's strongest-ever, most appealing ownership proposition for customers in this sector of the UK market," commented Simon Green, Dealer Principal of Essex Mazda.

He added: "Our upgraded Motability campaign for the summer months offers such great customer benefits that I'm confident they will be extremely attractive to both existing and new customers eligible for the Motability scheme. In addition, the broader choice of models available – including automatic versions of the Mazda2, Mazda3, Mazda6 and MX-5 – will draw many Motability customers to the Mazda brand for the first time."

For more information, or to book a test drive, call 01268 928023, or visit Essex Mazda on Stadium Way, Rayleigh.

Orders are accepted by the Publishers subject to the Standard Conditions agreed between the Newspaper Society and the Institute of Practitioners in Advertising. See that:

1. Advertisements are accepted on the conditions that (a) descriptions relating to goods are accurate and in no way contravene the provisions of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, and the Fair Trading Act 1973, and (b) the copy complies with the British Code of Advertising Practice. Advertisements offering credit or hire facilities must conform to the Consumer Credit (Advertisements) Regulations 1980.

2. 'Classified' Advertisers offering goods or service of a business, commercial or trade nature will, at the discretion of the Publishers, be deemed 'Trade Advertisers', and as such, must include their names in advertisements. A telephone number is an optional addition to these requirements and not an alternative.

To comply with the Business Advertisements (Disclosure) Order 1977, Trade Advertisers must make it clear that they are selling goods in the course of business either by content, format, size or place of the advertisement or by including words such as 'trade', 'dealer', 'agent', 'wholesaler', ('T') etc. in the advertisement.

3. The Publishers accept no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage however caused arising out of:

- (a) Any error, inaccuracy or omission in the printing or publishing of any advertisement;
- (b) Any failure to publish an advertisement on the day / date or day / dates specified by the advertiser; or
- (c) Any delay in forwarding or omission to forward replies to box numbers to the advertiser.

4. The Publishers will endeavour to publish advertisements on the day / date or day / dates specified by the advertiser but insertion days / dates cannot be guaranteed.

5. Where shrinkage of advertisement occurs for whatever reason the advertisement will be charged to the nearest full centimetre. This will NOT apply to the full-page advertisements, which remain full pages even after shrinkage.

6. The Publishers reserve the right to reject an advertisement or to vary it in any way they deem fit at any time before publication, whether or not the advertisement has already been accepted for publication.

7. Whilst every effort is made to minimise errors in advertisements, mistakes do sometimes occur. Advertisers or their agents should therefore check their advertisements and inform us of any errors immediately. Responsibility cannot be accepted for more than one incorrect insertion. Typographical or minor changes, which do not affect the value of the advertisement, do not qualify for reparation or allowances.

8. All gross advertising rates (except classified lineage and semi-display) are subject to and include a 0.1% Advertising Standards Board of Finance surcharge, payable by the advertisers to help finance the self-regulatory control system administered by the Advertising Standards Authority.

9. All rates quoted are subject to VAT at the rate currently in force at the time the advertisement appears.

10. Should the rate for advertisements be altered the price for remaining insertions shall be revised accordingly or the publishers shall have the right to cancel the unexpired portion of the order.

11. The placing of an advertisement order will be deemed an acceptance of these conditions.

12. Account facilities are granted at the discretion of the Company.

13. All accounts must be settled within the terms agreed by the Company and the Customer.

(1) Should an advertiser be in breach of the agreed terms, the publisher shall be entitled to levy a 10% surcharge on the value of the whole debt in respect of accounts with terms of less than 30 days, and any discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed.

(2) Regular monthly accounts that are in breach of the agreed terms will pay an interest rate of 6% above the current bank of England base rate for each month that the account is overdue and discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed. Should Legal action be required the interest will be charged in accordance with the County Court Act 1984.

14. Where an advertiser instructs / appoints an advertising agent to act on their behalf, the advertiser will remain jointly and severally liable for payment in respect for an advertisement(s) should the appointed agent fail to pay. For the avoidance of doubt, the agent acts for the advertiser and not for the publisher with the agent being responsible for notifying the advertiser of this liability.

15. All queries must be notified, preferably in writing to the accounts department of the publisher within 7 days of the invoice date.

16. All digital services are maintained in partnership with the publishers' hosting service providers. Every effort is made to ensure the continuity of these services, but some occasional technical downtime beyond the publishers control may occur. The publisher and its associated companies shall be under no liability if the production and distribution of web services is delayed or prevented by any cause beyond the control of the publisher.

17. The Publisher may provide voucher copies for published advertisements in electronic form only subject to certain criteria. Further information is available on request.

18. The copyright of advertisements produced wholly or partially by the Publishers belong to the Publishers. Advertisers may not reproduce such advertisements without the Publishers' consent.

WARM-UPS END WITH EIGHT-GOAL THRILLER

Football

Leyton Orient 4 Arsenal XI 4

Pre-season friendly

By Rowland Lyons at the Matchroom Stadium

ORIENT completed their warm-up campaign with an entertaining eight-goal feast against an Arsenal Development eleven on Tuesday night.

Scott Cuthbert, Kevin Lisbie and David Mooney were on target for the O's with the Gunners' Wellington Silva replying with a double before the break, before youngster, Johnny Gorman put the O's further ahead early in the second-half. A Chuba Akpom strike and Danny Boateng's late leveller ensured game went to the wire.

The O's made a dream start, taking a two-goal lead inside the first five minutes with Cuthbert and Lisbie heading home pin-point Lloyd James corners.

But, the young Gunners were always a threat on the break and Silva reduced the arrears, on 11 minutes, with a smart angled drive that left Jamie Jones clutching at thin air.

Orient – equally impressive going forward - had chances to restore their two-goal lead with Lisbie and Batt testing keeper, Dejan Iliev.

Arsenal then made their hosts pay a minute before the interval when Cuthbert tried to play his way out of trouble, but was caught in possession by the lively Akpom, who was then fouled and Silva followed up to beat Jones from the narrowest of angles.

Despite having made several good saves, Iliev will have been disappointed to have been beaten at his near post on the stroke of half-time, when Mooney – who before that had had a quiet first half – netted with a low drive.

Boss, Russell Slade – obviously with one eye on the Carlisle opener on Saturday (kick-off 3pm) – made ten substitutions at the break, with only goalie Jones surviving the 'cull' and Elliot Omozusi the only other senior pro.

But, despite fielding mainly youth team players and trialists, it was the O's who surprised the visitors and increased their lead when smart approach play ended with Gorman coolly slotting home within five minutes of the restart.

However, Arsenal refused to lie down and got their reward when the impressive Akpom met a through pass and slotted through Jones's legs.

Both sides continued to create chances and Jack Sherratt should have added a fifth for the O's on 69 minutes, but blazed wide when well placed, before the Gunners' Thomas Eisfeld rattled the woodwork with a sublime free-kick.

With six minutes remaining Gorman was unlucky not to double his tally with a superb chip that sub keeper, Josh Vincent did well to tip over his bar.

Orient then had to withstand intense Arsenal pressure, but fatally switched off close to full-time, allowing the industrious Boateng an easy equalizer.

Slade admitted: 'We should have won tonight – but we are unbeaten in pre-season. There were – however – one or two mistakes that we've got to eradicate before the first game of the season. But, it was a really good game of football – to be sure'.

As Slade begins his fifth season in charge, he added: 'Expectations don't affect me, or the players. It's all about the first game and making the first step – which is on Saturday – it's a long road from there. We're looking for a better start and we have worked so hard pre-season and we've got more minutes on the pitch for the players and I am hoping we get a good start – but a steady start will do'.

Slade is still looking to make a couple of signings: 'I am looking to get a midfielder in and would like a left-footer. But, Jonny Gorman did well tonight and Watford have allowed us to use Ross Jenkins in a couple of games and to train with us. Dean Cox and Lasimant (hamstring) are fighting to get fit – and I may well take 'Coxy' up the motorway for the Carlisle game'.

Keeper, Jones, added: 'It was a good game, which I enjoyed and got another 90 minutes under my belt. It's also good that we've now played three home games – which has helped us get used to the pitch'.

Jones – who has been troubled by injury – said: 'I am looking to play every game this season – but I think Jake Larkins will hopefully push me a bit more.'

"With our starting eleven – and Coxy to come in – we really are looking to push on a get in the play-offs – after all we were the best side in the league at the turn of the year".

Jones concluded: 'It's a very strong squad and I believe the best back four – along with Elliot [Omozusi] – that I have played behind. We will be going into games with confidence – especially if we can keep clean sheets the three up top can bang in the goals. We shall be going into win every game – and Carlisle is one of them'.

● After Saturday's season-opener at Carlisle, the O's entertain Coventry City in the Capital One Cup on Tuesday (kick-off 7.45pm).

LEYTON ORIENT: Jamie Jones – Scott Cuthbert, Mathieu Baudry, Nathan Clarke (captain), Gary Sawyer – Shaun Batt, Romain Vincelot, Lloyd James, Moses Odubajo – Kevin Lisbie, David Mooney.

Second-half: Jamie Jones – Elliot Omozusi, Harrison Georgiou, De'Reece Vanderhyde, Jack Sherratt – Alex Finney, Ben Sampayo, Johnny Gorman, Harry Lee – Ross Jenkins, George Bowerman, Subs (not used): Josh Uzun, Lawson Okimeki, Elyon Marshall-Katung.

ARSENAL: Deyan Iliev (Josh Vickers 63) – Tafari Moore, Danny Boateng, Isaac Hayden, Leander Siemann – Thomas Eisfeld, Kris Olsson, Nico Yennaris (captain), Wellington Silva (Anthony Jeffrey 69) – Chuka Aneke, Chuba Akpom (Austin Lippman 76). Subs (not used): Daniel Crowley, Glen Kamara, Tarum Dawkins.

Golden years of football club

TO commemorate the 75th anniversary of Chelmsford City FC Steve Little has written of the most exciting years in the club's history, 1958 to 1968, when it sought election to the Football League by having a ground worthy of the First Division and a team to match.

With the financial support of local businessman, John Coward, and on the coat-tails of his single-minded vision, the club embarked on an ambitious quest to live Coward's dream and become the leading non-league club in the country, so almost certainly guaranteeing election to the League by the member clubs (the only way possible at that time).

Only moderate success was achieved on the pitch and very little development completed at the New Writtle Street ground. The club's healthy finances of the early 1960s began to disappear as the 60s wore on and John Coward was ousted with his dream in tatters, yet the irony of it all was that in 1968 City DID become the best non-league club in the country but still League status was denied.

'Living the Claret Dream' is not a reflective current view of events from more than half a century ago but is a collection of stories from those who were there including ex-players such as stalwarts Peter Gillott, Tony Butcher and Brian Terry; Club Secretary Len Menhinick; local Sports Reporter from that time, Martin Rogers, and supporters including David Selby, David Billings and Steve himself.

Steve calls the story 'a retrospective fly-on-the-wall documentary' – it is written as if it is happening in the here and now. In order to convey the facts more fully he has introduced two fictitious characters, a young man working at the club and a director but the facts are true and based on extensive research.

Current Chelmsford City Chairman, Mansell Wallace, has provided an interesting Foreword as he, too, was a young supporter throughout the period covered and considers the book will appeal to current supporters both young and old.

The book is published at £12.99 and Steve will donate any profits from the book to club funds to help boost their current quest to reach the 'Promised Land' of the Football League if copies are obtained through the Club Shop at Melbourne Park, its Supporters' Club or website.

Youngsters do their club proud at county level

Athletics

Southern Under 13 Inter Counties, Kingston July 28

SIX Havering Mayesbrook athletes did Essex proud as they earned their county vests in the Under 13 Inter Counties event at Kingston on Sunday.

Becca Brown was close to her 800m best in the blustery conditions as she placed third in a high class A string race. Katie Mitchell was fifth in the 1500m A race and Isabella Purdie added another fifth place in the A long jump.

Sophie Taylor improved her best to place fifth in the A discus but Mayi Hughes went even better in the B competition with her winning throw not only a new PB but was the third longest in the UK this year, also taking her to third on the club all time U13 discus list. The girls' team finished second overall.

Jairzinho Morris got a taste of top competition when he was third in his 100m heat, as the boys squad placed third.

Vortex Hammers face table toppers task

Speedway

The Vortex Hammers will take on the Sky Sports Elite League leaders Birmingham this Friday at the Arena Essex Raceway as well as Danish wonder kid Mikkel Bech, who replaces Josh Auty in the Brummies line up.

Jon Cook, the Vortex Hammers co-promoter, said: "We will need to be at the top of our game as we must secure three more Elite League points in the race to stay in the top four."

"The addition of Bech certainly strengthens the opposition and also provides our fans with the attraction of seeing one of the world's most talked about riders."

The Vortex Hammers go into this vital meeting with the same team that defeated Kings Lynn last Friday at the Arena Essex Raceway but will be looking for more consistency within the team by cutting out the number of last places but to continue providing the majority of race winners.

The Birmingham Brummies line up will see Edward Kennett come in at No.1 to replace Chris Harris, who sustained a broken collarbone at Eastbourne on Monday. He is joined in their top five by their captain, and former Hammers rider, Daniel King, Ben Barker and German Martin Smolinski.

The rider replacement facility will be used to cover Australian Jason Doyle's rides as he will be racing for his Premier League side Somerset the same evening. The Brummies will also have to bring in replacement riders at reserve as Josh Auty will be riding for his Premier League side Scunthorpe whilst Nicolas Covatti will be in Italy preparing for Saturday's Grand Prix there in which he will be the wild card.

The exciting young Danish prospect Mikkel Bech Jensen, who recently joined Plymouth in the Premier League, comes in for Auty whilst the Brummies management are yet to announce who will replace Covatti.

The action gets underway on Friday at the usual start time of 8pm.

Teams (in alphabetical order):-

Vortex Hammers: Lewis Bridger, Kevin Doolan, Peter Karlsson, Richard Lawson, Piotr Swiderski, Sebastian Ulamek and Davey Watt (captain).

Birmingham Brummies: Ben Barker, Jason Doyle (Rider Replacement), Edward Kennett (Guest for Chris Harris), Daniel King (captain), Mikkel Bech Jensen (Guest for Josh Auty) and Martin Smolinski plus a rider still to be confirmed (Guest for Nicolas Covatti).
